inclusion

In 2022 sowieso! accomplished

8 art workshops

8 art workshops in collaboration with ZOOM Kindermuseum

15 dance workshops in collaboration with Dschungel Wien

3 art, music and dance workshops

The year of 2022 was BIG for sowieso!

We were running a total of 35 workshops giving 300 kids the chance to be part of a group experience and creating art, music and dance.

We love our project which has gone through a lot of growth over the past years and has become a well-known institution in Vienna.

All our workshops are fully booked and our programs are in high demand from the kids and their parents. We are very proud about our on-going collaborations with ZOOM Kindermuseum and Dschungel Wien, which are the central hubs in Vienna for children, art & culture.

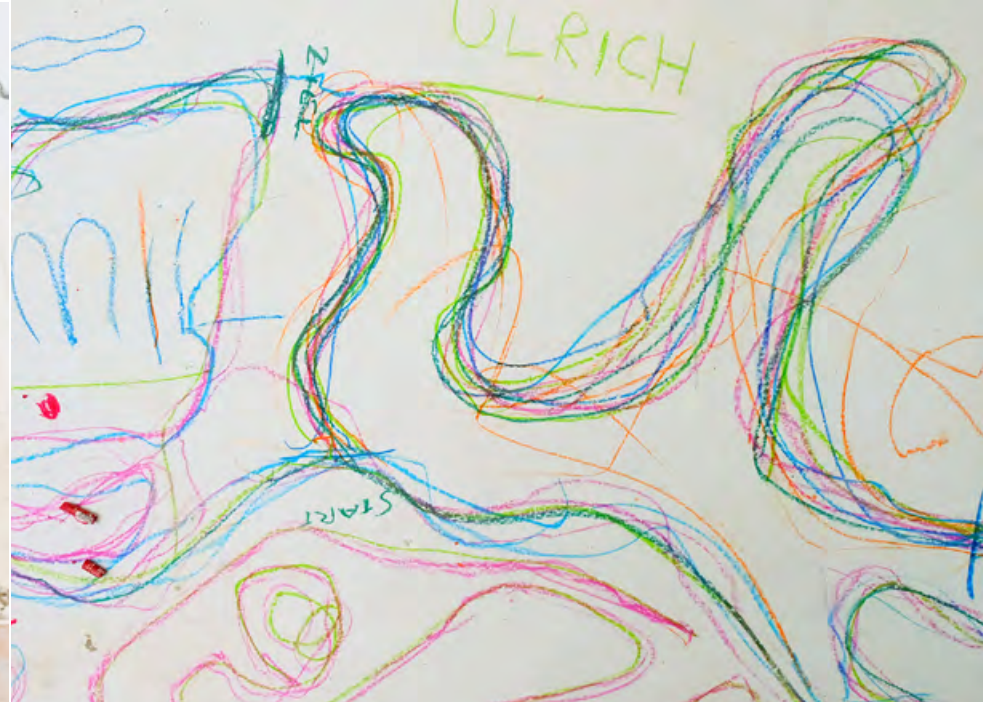

HAHAHA

STIMMT

In 2019 the ZOOM Kindermuseum got a new director with Andrea Zsutty and opened new opportunities for sowieso!

Since 2022 sowieso! is more included in the museums programm and facilitates monthly „Begegnungsworkshops“ in the Atelier.

Annie Janz-Marsh and Karolina Kras from sowieso! prevent two trainings about inclusion for the staff of ZOOM children's museum in Vienna.

„Inklusive Kunst, Musik und Tanzworkshops“

since years we dreamt about a workshop formate to create deeper and more intense relations to the children. we developed a concept for a workshop-series of three episodes with a group of the same eight children and nine adults. it was a success and not the only time to be held.

[battery re-charge]

Martin Tschiedel's commitment and dedication to raise donations for our association have supported all our prospects and helped us expand our programs and compensate our team for their time and efforts.

We are deeply grateful for your generous support in the past years. Without your help our work wouldn't be the same.
